MarkB, Wednesday 03 January 2024 - 22:06:41

The 2023 KRFL Regular Season is complete. The final regular season league file is available on the league website.
Thank you all for a smooth season!!
Congrats to all the playoff teams.

The Wildcard Playoff round league file has also been posted to the league website.

VERY IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ**

The Playoffs have been created using a Playoff Bracket system in the game.

This creates a NEW, SEPARATE league playoff file.

The playoff teams MUST (and anyone else who wants to follow along should) follow these steps, in this order:

1. Download the 2023 Final Regular Season league file from the league website.
2. Extract the 2023 Final Regular Season league files into your 2023 KRFL season folder, the same as you have done with the prior 17 weekly files.
3. Download 2023 KRFL Wildcard Playoff league file from the league website.
4. Next you MUST got to "Setup", and "Install Season". Find the playoff file you downloaded and install it.

This will create a new folder on your computer for the playoff files. You should name the folder 2023 KRFL Playoffs

After this new folder is created, for the subsequent rounds of the playoffs, you only need to download and extract the PLAYOFF league files to that folder and NOT the regular season folder.

The playoff seeds are:

AFC Division Winners

1. Atlanta - 14-3
2. Des Moines 13-4
3. Bensalem - 11-6

AFC Wild Cards

4. Bay City - 11-6
5. Penn St. - 10-6-1
6. SW. Florida - 10-7

NFC Division Winners

1. Vancouver - 15-2
2. Cleveland - 15-2
3. Iowa - 13-4

NFC Wild Cards

4. Tampa Bay - 12-5
5. Kentucky - 10-7

6. New York - 9-8

The Wild Card Playoff games are:

AFC

6 SW. Florida @ #3 Bensalemy

#5 Penn St. @ #4 Bay City

NFC

#6 New York @ #3 Iowa

#5 Kentucky @ #4 Tampa Bay

The teams with the byes (the #1 and #2 seeds) will be given (but haven't yet) one week of rest.

Good Luck to all the playoff teams and thanks again for a smooth regular season.
