Tender Rules are as follows:

(This is from the draft instructions) :

Tender Offers must be submitted by email to the Commissioner before the conclusion of drafting on the previous day. The email should include the name of the player tendered, his position, your team name and the next day's round (salary tier) that your offer will be applied to. All Tender Offers are provisional because it is possible that another team will draft your tender offered player at a higher salary if the current round hasn't concluded. Successful tenders will be processed after the day's draft concludes and prior to the next day's rounds and can be found listed under Tender Selections. Tendered players do not count as draft picks for the round in which they are tendered (ex. a team tendering a player in round five can still make their round five pick).

So lets assume we are in the $7.5 million round and RVC wants to tender Paul Kruger at the $5million salary round. RVC must email me BEFORE 9pm Eastern Time on the day of the $7.5 million round. Assuming nobody drafts him in the $7.5mil round, I process the tender offer after the $7.5mil round is complete. He is added to RVC's roster at the $5mil salary. RVC does not lose a draft pick in the $5million round to do this.

I post tenders for each round on the draft website on the selections page. So that is where to look at the beginning of each round. I will also try to remember to send out an email whenever a player is tendered.

As always, any questions, please ask.
