

KRFL Trading Period

MarkB, Wednesday 27 March 2019 - 21:58:09

Despite the player ratings being released today, please be aware the first KRFL trading is not open until April 29th, which is after the official release of the game.

So for now, any trade you make is a gentleman's agreement only and not official until both teams post it on the league forum subsequent to the opening of the trading period.
