

KRFL Divisional Championships

, Wednesday 27 January 2010 - 11:07:21

In the NFC, Penn St. jumps to an early lead on the back of it's opportunistic defense and never looks back as they defeat Pittsburgh, 28-10. Nitanny Lion's LB Terell Suggs earns game MVP honors for his performance which included 2 sacks and a fumble recovery for a touchdown.

Crown City holds off So Cal in a shootout, 34-27. Sun QB Kyle Orton threw for 3 TDs as the Sun fell behind 14-0 and could never quite draw even as the Cougars answered each Sun score with one of their own. Eli Manning garnered MVP honors as the Cougars advance and now host Penn St. who defeated the Cougars at home in week 11, 27-7.

In the AFC, top-seeded Vancouver pounder Oreland, 34-6. Oreland, a heavy underdog, gambled early and often failing on two crucial 4th down conversion attempts. The Commodores dominated from the start as their offense played error-free and QB Philip Rivers scored a near perfect rating of 139.2 to earn MVP honors.

Defending champion New York hosted St. Petersburg in the final game, moving on with a convincing 30-9 victory. Turnovers were once again key here as the Hitmen scored a +3 in that department. New York CB Charles Woodson earned MVP honors with his 3 INTs which included a pick-six. The Hitmen travel to Vancouver in an attempt to return to the Superbowl to defend their title.